

UNITED NATIONS INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEOPLE WITH DISABILITY

2020

International Day of People with Disability South Australia Awards

Nomination Form

OUTSTANDING VOLUNTEER AWARD 2020

As a part of our celebrations during International Day of People with Disability 2020, we will be recognising an individual who has made an extraordinary contribution to the disability community.

This award provides the opportunity for people living with disability, their relatives, carers, and others, to acknowledge someone who has provided extraordinary service and assistance.

The selection committee will determine the most outstanding individual as someone who has made a significant contribution and commitment to people living with a disability during the past 12 months.

WHO CAN BE NOMINATED?

A volunteer who has provided service excellence during the past year. Service excellence includes being treated with respect and dignity, providing clear information, and a general commitment to quality service provision.

HOW MANY PEOPLE CAN I NOMINATE?

The award will be presented to one person who has shown great commitment and service excellence. You can submit as many nominations as you like.

WHO CAN NOMINATE SOMEONE FOR THE OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT AWARD?

Only people who have experienced disability, their relatives or carers can nominate.

The award will be presented on International Day of People with Disability - Thursday 3 December 2020.

Please describe how the individual has made a significant contribution and commitment to you or a person you know living with a disability.

The best way to do this is to provide examples or scenarios demonstrating this level of service.

For example, describe activities, actions or situations which were managed in a way that impressed you.

I would like to bring the following friend/family member as my guest:
